

Summer Reading Fiction Rubric

Name: _____

	4	3	2	1
Background Information	Book title, author's name, main characters, and setting are all described.	Report is missing one of the components of background information.	Report is missing two of the components of background information.	Report is missing three or more of the components of background information.
Book Summary	The summary shows a deep understanding of the story. Student includes at least 5 details about the book.	The summary shows some understanding of the story. The student includes at least 4 details about the book.	The summary is missing information or is out of sequence. The student includes at least 3 details about the book.	The summary is not clearly written. The student includes 2 details or less about the book.
Connection to Character	Student connection to a character is well thought out and gives at least 3 supporting examples.	Student connection to a character is thought out and gives at least 2 supporting examples.	Student connection to a character is not well thought out, or gives less than 2 supporting examples.	Student is unable to state why he/she connected to a character in the book.
Learner Profile Attribute	There is a clear link between the character and learner profile. Student gives at least 3 examples of how the character portrayed the attribute.	There is a link between the character and learner profile. Student gives at least 2 examples of how the character portrayed the attribute.	The link between the character and the learner profile is unclear, or the student gives less than 2 examples of how the character portrayed the attribute.	The link between the character and the learner profile is vague or is incorrect.
Recommendation	The recommendation is thoughtful and the student gives at least 3 supporting examples.	The student put thought into the recommendation and there are at least 2 supporting examples.	The recommendation is incomplete, or there are less than 2 supporting examples.	The recommendation is unclear and unsupported.

Score: _____/20

Summer Reading Fiction Rubric

Score: _____/20