

Summer Reading Nonfiction Rubric

Name: _____

	4	3	2	1
Background Information	Book title, author's name, and topic are all described.	Report is missing one of the components of background information.	Report is missing two of the components of background information.	Report is missing three or more of the components of background information.
Words and word meanings	Report includes five new grade-level words and their meanings.	Report includes four new grade-level words and their meanings.	Report includes three new grade-level words and their meanings, or five new words below grade level.	Report includes less than three new grade-level words and their meanings, or less than five new words below grade level.
Facts	Student includes five new facts from the book, written in complete sentences.	Student includes four new facts from the book, written in complete sentences.	Student includes three new facts from the book, written in complete sentences, or has five facts with some incomplete sentences.	Student includes less than three new facts from the book, or all facts are not written in complete sentences.
Learner Profile Attribute	There is a clear link between the character and learner profile. Student gives at least 3 examples of how the character portrayed the attribute.	There is a link between the character and learner profile. Student gives at least 2 examples of how the character portrayed the attribute.	The link between the character and the learner profile is unclear, or the student gives less than 2 examples of how the character portrayed the attribute.	The link between the character and the learner profile is vague or is incorrect.
Recommendation	The recommendation is thoughtful and the student gives at least 3 supporting examples.	The student put thought into the recommendation and there are at least 2 supporting examples.	The recommendation is incomplete, or there are less than 2 supporting examples.	The recommendation is unclear and unsupported.

Score: _____/20

Summer Reading Nonfiction Rubric

Score: _____/20